Aventura Arts & Cultural Center Preferred Restaurant Partners Program Dishes out Dining Deals for Ticket Holders

AVENTURA – Aventura Arts & Cultural Center now is providing an extended experience by adding pre- or post-show dining opportunities with the new Preferred Restaurant Partners Program, which offers exclusive dining discounts at four area restaurants. Ticket holders for any performance at Aventura Arts & Cultural Center simply need to show their ticket stub for performances held on the same day or evening at the partner restaurants to receive the special offers.

All of the restaurants in the Preferred Restaurant Partners Program are located near Aventura Arts & Cultural Center, allowing guests to dine in proximity and never miss a curtain.

“We are thrilled to offer this perfect entertainment combination,” said Aventura Arts & Cultural Center General Manager Steve Clark “Anything we can do to enhance the experience for our guests is a win-win for both the Center and our restaurant partners.”

Captain Jim’s Seafood Market Restaurant in North Miami, which has been featured on CNN on Anthony Bourdain’s Parts Unknown, is offering a 15 percent discount off the check, excluding lobster and stone crab.

Upon opening, CORSAIR by Scott Conant, located in Turnberry Isle, was named one of the 10 Hottest New Restaurants in Miami by Zagat Miami. Featuring hearty, farmhouse-style cooking, Aventura Arts & Cultural Center ticket holders can receive 20 percent off the check.

Spend $50 at the famed Hard Rock Cafe at Bayside and receive a free order of wings.

Also offering a free appetizer up to $12 in value is the Sunny Isles Tony’s Roma’s, legendary for its ribs and so much more.

These special offers do not include tax and gratuities and are subject to change. For more information, visit <http://www.aventuracenter.org/visit/dining>.

The Aventura Arts & Cultural Center is located at 3385 N.E. 188 Street in Aventura.
