Aventura Arts & Cultural Center Presents 60s-Inspired Folk-Rock Artists: A Band Called Honalee

AVENTURA, Fla. – Described as a modern-day folk trio inspired by the legacy of the legendary Peter, Paul and Mary, as well as many other 60s folk-rock artists, A Band Called Honalee takes the stage at Aventura Arts & Cultural Center on Friday, February 5 at 8 p.m. The musically accomplished trio reinvigorates and brings fresh harmonies to iconic songs from Peter, Paul and Mary, as well as The Beatles, The Byrds, Bob Dylan, Joni Mitchell, Pete Seger, The Weavers, The Mamas and The Papas and more to inspire new audiences and rekindle the passion of long-time fans.

Believing that the melodies and messages of the 60s folk and folk/rock era are just as relevant today as they were when they first hit the scene, A Band Called Honalee celebrates the undeniable ability of this uniquely American music genre to emotionally and consciously move people and bring them together.

Tickets are $40 and $45.
