The Motor City Sound Rocks the Stage During the Magic of Motown at Aventura Arts & Cultural Center

AVENTURA, Fla. – Audiences will revel in the all the golden age sounds from the Motor City when the Magic of Motown rocks the stage at Aventura Arts & Cultural Center on Friday, March 4, at 8 p.m. This dynamic tribute features the Motor City Magic Band, with outstanding male and female vocalists, backed by a six-piece band. Together they perform a decade of the most popular and culture-defining songs in soul music history, including hits from The Temptations, The Four Tops and James Brown.

The Motor City Magic Band has toured internationally before tens of thousands of people. Many of the multi-talented musicians have backed up or opened for original Motown artists including James Brown and The Temptations.

Motown, the record label founded by Berry Gordy in 1959, not only produced 79 records in the Top Ten of the Billboard Hot 100 chart between 1960 and 1969, it defined an unmatched sound, a music decade and became a nickname still used today for Detroit, Michigan.

Tickets are $40 and $45.
