Thrill to Opera and Dance as The Opera Atelier and The City of Aventura present “Great Opera Moments”

Production features a collaboration with Arts Ballet Theatre of Florida

AVENTURA, Fla. – The City of Aventura and The Opera Atelier present Great Opera Moments, an original production with a program of operatic and dance highlights staged in collaboration with Arts Ballet Theatre of Florida at the Aventura Arts & Cultural Center on Saturday, November 4 at 8 p.m.

The two acclaimed regional companies have chosen highlights of four operatic masterworks: Aida, Tosca, Manon and La Favorita.

The Opera Atelier’s roots trace back to New York City in 2005 when the company presented public performances and specialized in training opera singers to learn, perform and master complete opera roles. The company began training singers in Miami five years later before offering public performances in South Florida in 2012. The Opera Atelier presents high quality productions while also offering artistic collaboration, professional training and a creative exchange space where artists and opera lovers draw inspiration from one another.

Now celebrating its 20th anniversary season, Arts Ballet Theatre of Florida provides accessibility, community involvement, education, and training for professional and pre-professional dancers. Under the artistic direction of Ballet Master Vladimir Issaev, the company also produces high quality works and provides programs that enhance the understanding and appreciation of classical ballet among new audiences.
